

ENTREPRENEURIAL BUSINESS

Students who choose to study Entrepreneurial Business will graduate with two bachelor's degrees: a B.A. in Liberal Arts and a B.A. in Entrepreneurial Business.

B.A. in Liberal Arts

B.A. in Entrepreneurial Business

TERM 1

Life & Career Dynamics
Writing & Rhetoric I
Calculus I or Pre-Calculus

The Mindset of the Entrepreneurial Masters
Accounting I

TERM 2

Foundational Economic Concepts
Writing & Rhetoric II
Probability & Statistics

Philosophy of Business & Effective
Management
Accounting II

TERM 3

Philosophy of Being Human
Western Civilization I
Logic
Internship (non-credit)

Financial Modeling in Excel
Corporate Finance

TERM 4

Ethics
Western Civilization II
Principles of Physics
Internship (non-credit)

Data Analytics
Investments

TERM 5

Ancient Masters
Philosophy of Economics
Principles of Biology
Internship (non-credit)

Product Design
International Finance

TERM 6

Medieval Masters
Contemporary Economic Systems Microeconomics & Economic Decision Making
Internship (non-credit)

Marketing
Business Law & Ethics I

TERM 7

Renaissance Masters
Politics & Culture of a Free Society
American History I
Persuasive Speaking & Debate
Internship (non-credit)

Business Law & Ethics II

TERM 8

Modern Masters
Virtuous Leadership in a Free
Society
American History II
Internship (non-credit)

Entrepreneurial Ventures
Capstone